

Dávid Pavlovits
professor, head of guitar department
University of Szeged, Béla Bartók Faculty of Arts
Tisza L. krt 79-81. 6722 Szeged, Hungary
Tel: +36 30 29 37 011
www.pavlovits.com
paavlovits@gmail.com

Review of educational program
“Instrumental and Orchestral Art”
Field of study 02 “Culture and arts”
Specialty 025 “Music”
Bachelor's degree of education
Separate Division "Mykolayiv Branch of Kyiv National University of Culture and Arts"

The educational and professional program "Instrumental and Orchestral Art" has been concluded for students of the Separate Division "Mykolayiv Branch of Kyiv National University of Culture and Arts" studying in the specialty 025 "Music ", bachelor's degree of education.

This program is focused on a competency-based approach and aimed at the developing the complex of general and professional skills.

The educational components of the program "Instrumental and Orchestral Art" are complied with all modern requirements for the regulation and organization of the study process in higher education. The content of the program includes pedagogical, performing, organizational and managerial characteristics of the training for future specialists in musical instrumental and orchestral art.

The structure of the educational and professional program "Instrumental and Orchestral Art" is clear and logically constructed. The reviewed program has all the necessary components such as characteristics of the program, fields of study and further employment, program competencies and results of study; material resources for the implementation of the training program for bachelors of music, etc.

It should be noted, the harmonization of scientific and practice-oriented content is provided by this program. The structure and content of the program indicate the developers' understanding of modern issues in the music as a field of study.

In conclusion, the educational and professional program "Instrumental and Orchestral Art" of the bachelor's degree of higher education can be recommended for implementation in the Separate Division "Mykolayiv Branch of Kyiv National University of Culture and Arts".

Budapest, 17 March 2021

Dr. Miklós David Pavlovits, associate professor
Head of guitar department, director of the Szeged Guitar Festival